

COURT OF APPEAL FOR ONTARIO

CITATION: Lynch v. Ross Wilson Holdings Ltd., 2026 ONCA 393

DATE: 20260605

DOCKET: M56896 (COA-26-OM-0103)

Huscroft, Dawe and Wilson JJ.A.

BETWEEN

Christopher Lynch

Appellant (Moving Party)

and

Ross Wilson Holdings Ltd.

Respondent (Responding Party)

Christopher Lynch, acting in person

Spencer Toole, for the responding party

Heard and rendered orally: June 3, 2026

On review of the order of Justice Bradley Miller of the Court of Appeal for Ontario, dated April 9, 2026.

REASONS FOR DECISION

[1] This is a motion for a panel review of the motion judge's decision to deny the moving party's request to stay a decision of the Divisional Court that removed a stay of an eviction order. The moving party confirms that he has since been evicted from his apartment.

[2] A reviewing panel can intervene only if the motion judge erred in principle or reached an unreasonable result. The moving party has not established that the motion judge erred in any way. In any event, the motion seeking a stay is now moot.

[3] Accordingly, the motion is dismissed.

[4] The responding party is entitled to costs of $3,250 all inclusive, payable forthwith.
