- [1] Judgment in this matter was delivered on 21 August 2026: Lake v Hermann [2026] QSC 193.
- [2] I made the following order, as set out in the written reasons for judgment:
- “The amended application for review filed 16 March 2026 is dismissed.”
- [3] By correspondence emailed 24 August 2026 to my associate, the solicitors for the first and second respondents advised the Court that they had identified a typographical error in respect to the order, namely, the amended application for review was actually filed on 5 March 2026, not 16 March 2026 as reflected in the order. The correspondence proceeded to inquire whether the Court would amend “the order under the slip rule, rule 288 (sic) in the Uniform Civil Procedure Rules?” I note the applicant was copied into the correspondence forwarded to my associate.
- [4] The date referred to in the order is clearly a clerical mistake. Accordingly, the order will be corrected pursuant to r 388 (2) of the Uniform Civil Procedure Rules 1999 (Qld) to provide:
- “The amended application for review filed 5 March 2026 is dismissed.”
- [5] There will be no order as to costs in respect to correcting the order.
